

Dear Valued Partner,

We are excited to announce that AIG Retirement Services is now Corebridge Financial, a publicly traded company on the New York Stock Exchange.

While our name is changing, our focus remains the same—to proudly partner with you to help people plan, save for and achieve secure financial futures. As one of the largest providers of retirement solutions and insurance products in the United States, Corebridge is passionate about helping people address today's complex financial and retirement needs.

It's business as usual for our clients and partners, and there is nothing you need to do at this time.

Today's milestone does not create any changes in the products, policies or contracts that you, or those you serve, have with us. Our issuing life insurance companies will remain the same—American General Life Insurance Company, The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York, and The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company (VALIC). Please know that you may see—at least for a time—both the Corebridge and AIG brands on our materials and websites.

If you would like more information, please visit our new website at corebridgefinancial.com. Our relationship with you is extremely important to us. Thank you for your ongoing partnership.

Regards,
